A WARM UP

Session 2

Identify the Type of Passage

process descriptive autobiography narrative

	The garden was a rainbow of colors: bright red roses, sunny yellow daisies, and deep purple lavenders painted a beautiful picture. The air was sweet with the scent of flowers. Bees buzzed softly from bloom to bloom, busy with their work. A small pond in the corner had clear, sparkling water where goldfish swam lazily. Around it, green frogs croaked happily. Tall trees stood around the garden like guards, their leaves whispering in the gentle breeze. It was a peaceful place, perfect for sitting and listening to the cheerful songs of birds perched on the branches.
	Baking a chocolate cake is simple and fun. First, preheat your oven to 175°C. Then, in a bowl, mix 2 cups of flour, 1 cup of sugar, ½ cup of cocoa powder, 1 teaspoon of baking powder, and 1 teaspoon of salt. In another bowl, combine 1 cup of milk, 2 eggs, ½ cup of vegetable oil, and a teaspoon of vanilla extract. Mix the wet ingredients with the dry ingredients. Pour the batter into a greased cake pan. Bake for 30 minutes. Once it's cooled, you can add frosting. Now, enjoy your delicious chocolate cake!
	I was born in a small town in Brazil. Growing up, I always dreamed of studying abroad. My parents worked hard to give me a good education. I studied English every day, knowing it would be important for my future. After finishing high school, I applied to universities in the United States. The day I received my acceptance letter was unforgettable. It was a mix of excitement and nervousness. Moving to another country was challenging, but it was the start of a great adventure. Now, I am studying engineering and making new friends. I am proud of taking this big step in my life.
	One sunny afternoon, Anna realized she had lost her house key. She searched everywhere: in her bag, her pockets, and all around her house. She started to worry. The key was very important. Anna remembered visiting the grocery store earlier. Maybe she dropped it there. She rushed back to the store and asked the manager. He smiled and showed her a key someone had found in the aisle. It was her key! Anna felt a wave of relief and thanked the manager. She learned to be more careful with her important things from that day on.