In Mrs. González's class at Llano Oriental school, Paola heard a new word: "ephemeral."

EVENTS

Event 1 "Can you repeat please?" Paola asked.
"Ephemeral means lasting a short time," Mrs. González explained kindly.
"oh, I see. I didn't know," Paola admitted.
"Don't worry, Paola. Learning takes time," Mrs. González reassured.

Event 2 "How do you pronounce 'ephemeral'?" Paola wondered.
"It's ee-fim-er-ahl," Mrs. González pronounced.
"Thank you," Paola said, trying the word in a sentence.
"You're right, Paola!" Mrs. González praised.

Event 3 When the bell rang, Paola asked to use the toilet. She said: "Mrs. González, Can I go to the toilet please?"
"sure", said the teacher.

Event 4 At snack time, Paola helped a friend open his bag of chips. "Move aside please," she said.
"Thanks, Paola!" his friend said happily.
Paola asked, "Can I distribute the snack?"
"Of course, Paola. You're so helpful," Mrs. González smiled.

Event 5 Paola felt proud as she left school, ready for more adventures tomorrow.
