5 Complete the text with the correct form of be and/or some, any or a/an.

Cereal for ... dinner?!

Do you love cereal so much that you eat it for breakfast, lunch and dinner? Then the Cereal Killer Café is for you! In fact, there (a) aren't any ..... dishes on the menu without cereals. There (b) ..... hundreds of different cereals to choose from and all the food (c) ..... fun and strange. For example, there (d) ..... burgers with chips – but they (e) ..... quite unusual! There (f) ..... cornflakes on the chicken and there (g) ..... branflakes on the chips. Do you want (h) ..... drink? There (i) ..... coffee with cereal-flavoured milk – choose from Coco Pops®, Frosties® and other well-known cereals.

Does it sound like (j) ..... interesting lunch or dinner? Or do you prefer (k) ..... regular cereal – at breakfast time?

Vocabulary

Containers

1a Complete the text with the correct form of some of these words.

Containers
bag • bottle • box • can • carton • cup • glass • jar • packet • tin

FOOD AND DRINK IN THE UK

- British people drink 95 million (a) ..... of coffee a day.
- People in the UK love to share a (b) ..... of biscuits – chocolate digestives are their favourite.
- Young British people drink more (c) ..... of energy drinks than teenagers in other European countries.
- British people eat six billion (d) ..... of crisps a year.
- Many people buy a (e) ..... of chocolates in the shape of a heart on Valentine's Day. Richard Cadbury sold the first one in the UK in 1868.

For sources of data in exercise, see acknowledgements page.

1b Listen and check your answers.

2 SPEAKING Write phrases about the objects in the pictures. Use the container words in 1a.

LIVEWORKSHEETS