My holidays

I'm Mery. Last Summer holidays, I went with my friends to London. We went by plane. There, we saw the most interesting places in London as Big Ben or Buckingham palace. I love it because London is a beautiful city.

One day we went shopping on Oxford street. I bought a new jacket, my friend Anne bought a pair of trousers but my friend Martha didn't buy anything because she was so tired. We also bought some snacks: three ice-cream, two crisps and one hot dog. The food wasn't very good.

Hi, people! Welcome back to my blog! Last week, my friends and I were in Rome, Italy. It was an exciting visit! First, we visited 'The Coliseum' There were a lot of people but it was really cool!

At 12 o'clock we went to a restaurant. We ate Italian pasta. It was delicious! After that, we took a taxi to the "Trevi Fountain". We took lots of photos. Then we ate an ice cream and we watched its beautiful statues. We walked a lot and we drank coffee near The Vatican. There were a lot of monuments, statues and historical places. We loved Rome. We arrived at our hotel at midnight. We were tired, but happy!
