Practise

1 What is each robot doing? Match each letter below to the number of the picture that represents the robot's action.

A This robot is sorting food.

B This robot is delivering packages on the ground.

C This robot is driving a car while the passenger is reading.

D This robot is preparing a hot drink.

E This robot is delivering packages by air.

F This robot is packing boxes that have been sold on a website.

2 State whether the following statements are true or false:

a A self-driving car is also called an AV.

b It is too dangerous to use robots for brain surgery.

c A bus always needs a human driver.

d Packages can only be delivered using robot drones.

e Robots preparing food must look like humans.

3 Match each letter below to the number of the picture that represents the robot's action.

A This robot is preparing food.

B This robot is serving food.

C This robotic limb can increase mobility for people with disabilities.

D This robot can care for patients by lifting them.

E This robot can perform surgery.

F This robot can give information to patients.

①   ②

③   ④

⑤   ⑥

4 State whether the following statements are true or false:

a Robots cannot work in hospitals.

b Robots can make dishes of food.

c There are robots that can perform surgeries on patients.

d Taking a patient's temperature cannot be done by robots.

e Robots cannot serve drinks.