

JACOB COLLIER – SHE PUT SUNSHINE

She put sunshine into my silhouette
Was feeling _____ and she got me drunk instead
Corner to corner, line by line
She's making me dream out loud

She put sunshine into my open mouth
Too many _____ gave me something to sing about
Morning to moon, rhyme by rhyme
She's giving me back my smile
She's keeping _____ all the while

She knows just how to wake me
She _____ me gold and shakes me

CHORUS:

I get a little _____
And she comes to me, she illuminates me
And if she ever gets _____ to me
Well, it's plain to see she'd incinerate me
But I don't mind her giving me her sunshine smile

She put sunshine onto my Internet
Connection was _____, she put a ring on it
Colder and colder, crime to crime
She's opening up _____
To everything I don't know

She knows just how to _____ me
She paints me bold and stakes me

CHORUS

Trees, to cover me (good morning, sunshine)
Bees, a remedy
And again, and again, and again, and a—
Trees, to cover me (good morning, hallelujah)
Bees, a remedy
And again, and again, and again, and a— (giving me her sunshine smile)
