

Too and Enough

TOO: is used to say that something is more than we need or want

ENOUGH: is used to say something is sufficient

A. Complete the sentences using too/ enough and the adjective in brackets

Name	Kerry	Ian	Lana	Ben

Age	10	13	12	14
Height	1 m 64	1 m 60	1 m 54	1 m 72

Come to the funfair!

Roller coaster
Minimum height: 1 m 65

Bumper cars
Age: 14+

Merry-go-round
Minimum height: 1 m 60

Water slide
Age: 12+

EXAMPLE: Ben is tall enough to go on the Mary-go-round

Kerry is too short to go on the roller coaster

1. Lana is _____ to go on the roller coaster (short)
2. Ben is _____ to go on the roller coaster (tall)
3. Kerry is _____ to go on the water slide (young)
4. Ian is _____ to go on the water slide (old)
5. Lana is _____ to go on the Mary-go-round (old)
6. Kerry is _____ to go on the Mary-go-round (tall)

1. The sweater _____ (small)
2. The boy _____ (tall)
3. The dress _____ (expensive)
4. The jeans _____ (short)

