Are you shopping too much?

Shopping used to be my favorite activity. It started when I was a teenager and I worked in clothes shop. I had a staff discount in the shop and I used to spend all my wages on clothes. When I got a job in an office I carried on spending all my spare money on clothes – even after I had got married, bought a house and had children!

I used to go shopping every weekend and I probably spent about £500a month on clothes. It wasn't something I only did when I wasn't very happy, I always went shopping however I felt. Sometimes I'd look for ages to find what I wanted. Other times, I'd just buy the first thing I saw.

Most of the things I didn't need. One day I bought three pairs of boots, even though I already had another ten pairs at home. I never even took the most expensive pair out of the box!

I realized I had a problem when one day my five-year-old daughter looked into my wardrobe and asked me why I had so many handbags. I counted them, I had seventy-five handbags and they must cost me thousands of pounds. I couldn't believe what I'd done!
First of all, I threw away my credit card. Then I gave away all the clothes that I'd never worn. After that, I made arrangements every Saturday to visit friends or go on a day trip, so I wouldn't be able to go shopping.

Question 22: What is the writer's main aim in writing the text?

a) to talk about different fashions
b) to describe her addiction to shopping
c) to talk about her expensive way of living
d) to advise people how to shop sensibly
