

Many hands make light work.	Strike while the iron is hot.	The grass is always greener on the other side of the fence.	Don't judge a book by its cover.
Actions speak louder than words.	It's no use crying over spilled milk.	Still waters run deep.	Out of sight, out of mind.

When you don't see or hear about something, you tend to forget about it.	A person's true character can be seen by what he does, not by what he says.	Other's lives always seem better and more successful than yours, even if your life is going well.	A person who tends to be quiet has a "deep," interesting personality.
Don't make a judgment about based on its outward appearance.	If people work together, the work is easier and is completed more quickly.	Don't waste time crying or complaining about something bad that has happened.	You should take advantage of a favorable situation before it changes.

Easy come, easy go.	You can't make an omelet without breaking a few eggs.	The forbidden fruit is always the sweetest.	If you scratch my back, I'll scratch yours.
Learn to walk before you run.	First things first.	Don't bite off more than you can chew.	It's better to be safe than sorry.

Don't take on more work or responsibility than you can handle at one time.	Learn basic skills before you attempt to do something more difficult.	It is impossible to do something good without encountering some problems.	Things that are prohibited seem very attractive or desirable.
Be careful and cautious and you will avoid potential problems that could arise later.	If you do something to help me, I will do something to help you.	The most important things should be done before everything else.	Money is easily earned and just as easily spent or lost.