

James and the Giant Peach : Chapter 21-22 [Part 2]

Question 26-30

Question 31-35

Question 36-40

Question 41-45

26. What was the primary goal in catching the seagulls?
A. To make a new nest.
B. To float the peach into the air.
C. To have enough food.
D. To scare away the sharks.
27. What indicates that reaching five hundred seagulls wasn't the end of their task?
A. The sharks went away.
B. The seagulls stopped coming.
C. They asked James to stop.
D. They encouraged James to continue.
28. What almost tipped the peach into the water again?
A. The weight of seagulls.
B. A large shark jump.
C. A heave from the crew.
D. The delicate balance of forces.
29. What caused the peach to hang just above the water?
A. A big wave.
B. Five hundred seagulls.
C. A heavy rain.
D. Not enough seagulls.
30. What did James's actions demonstrate about his character?
A. He was lazy.
B. He was scared.
C. He showed leadership.
D. He disliked his friends.
31. What happened when the Earthworm disappeared into the tunnel?
A. The shark attacked the peach
B. The seagull was captured
C. The peach sunk into the water
D. James fell into the water
32. Why did James shout 'Next one!' after the first seagull was caught?
A. To call the sharks
B. To celebrate their success
C. To prepare for catching another seagull
D. To stop capturing seagulls
33. What was Earthworm's reaction to being part of the plan?
A. It was feeling excited
B. It was feeling scared
C. It was feeling happy
D. It was feeling bored
34. How did the seagulls affect the peach's position in the water?
A. They made the peach spin
B. They made the peach stay still
C. They made the peach rise out of the water
D. They made the peach go deeper in water
35. What caused a sense of urgency when catching the seagulls?
A. The Ladybug was getting tired
B. The sharks were attacking more furiously

- C. James was running out of silk
- D. The seagulls were flying away

36. Who expressed concern about the supply of silk?

- A. Miss Spider
- B. James
- C. The Centipede
- D. The Old-Green-Grasshopper

37. What is the reason they could not stop catching seagulls according to James?

- A. They needed to rest
- B. They were having fun
- C. They needed to lift the peach
- D. They had enough silk

38. What indicated that the peach was close to lifting off from the water?

- A. It was shaking a lot
- B. One more seagull was needed
- C. There was total silence
- D. The sharks stopped attacking

39. What did the peach do after the five hundred and first seagull was caught?

- A. It started sinking
- B. It flew quickly into the sky
- C. It started to rise out of the water
- D. It dropped all the seagulls

40. Why did the peach stop rising after the five hundred and first seagull was tethered?

- A. Because it hit an obstacle
- B. Because it was too heavy
- C. Because the seagulls stopped flying
- D. Because James told it to stop

41. Who announced the number of seagulls to everyone?

- A. The Old-Green-Grasshopper
- B. The Earthworm
- C. Miss Spider
- D. James

42. How did James control the captured seagulls?

- A. He petted them gently
- B. He sang to them
- C. He gave them food
- D. He tied them to the peach stem

43. Why did someone shout 'We're lifting!'?

- A. Because they wanted to encourage others
- B. Because the peach started rising
- C. Because James lifted them up
- D. Because the seagulls were screeching

44. Why did they need to stay quiet when the five hundred and first seagull approached?

- A. So they could hear the seagull
- B. So they wouldn't scare the seagull away
- C. To listen to the sharks
- D. To hear James's instructions

45. What did the giant peach do after the five hundred and second seagull was harnessed?

- A. Stayed in the water
- B. Fell apart
- C. Begun to move towards the sea
- D. Rose up into the air