

"Friendship and Support: Sharing Feelings."

1. Students will conduct a conversation between Student A and Student B, then discuss feelings and meaning of the text.

Student A: Hello, how are you feeling today?

Student B: Hello, I feel a little sad. I miss my grandmother who is in another city.

Student A: I'm sorry to hear that. Sometimes missing someone can make us feel that way. Do you want to talk about her?

Student B: Yes, thank you. It makes me feel better to remember the good times we had together.

Student A: I'm glad I could help you. I'm always here if you need to talk about your feelings. How about we play together after school to cheer you up?

Student B: That sounds great! It makes me feel happy to have a friend like you.
