Part 7

Read the article. Then circle the correct statements.

Are you very busy? Do you have a lot of household chores? Well, you just need some organization.

Here are some ideas to help:

- Put dirty dishes in hot water for 15 minutes (or more).
Then wash them. This way the dishes are easy to clean.
- When you make dinner, make enough food for two dinners.
Eat some today. Eat some another day.
- A lot of people go shopping on weekends. So go shopping on a weeknight. There aren't a lot of people, and you can shop quickly.
- Save time in the morning. Take a shower or bath at night.
Don't take a shower or bath in the morning.

Example: a. If you are very busy, you need someone to help you.
[b.] If you are very busy, you need to be more organized.
c. If you are very busy, you should stop doing household chores.

27. a. Wash dishes for 15 minutes.
b. Run hot water over your dishes.
c. Leave dishes in hot water before you wash them.
28. a. Don't go to the store on the weekend.
b. Go to the store whenever you have time.
c. Go to the store on a Saturday or Sunday.
29. a. Eat two dinners at one time.
b. Eat only half of your dinner.
c. Make two dinners at the same time.
30. a. Don't take a shower or bath.
b. Take a shower or bath before you go to bed.
c. Take two quick showers instead of one long bath.

Write about your regular day. What do you do? Write four sentences. Use some frequency adverbs (always, usually, sometimes, never).
