

1. Gary Hi, Sophie. How's it going?
Sophie Not too bad, thanks.
Gary So, what do you think of university so far?
Sophie It's great. I'm enjoying it.
Gary Me too. Most of my classes are in the mornings, so I have got lots of spare time in the afternoons.
Sophie Lucky you! Anyway, see you later.

2. Neal Hey, do you want to see a film later?
Toby Sorry, I usually go to the gym on Thursdays. What about tomorrow?
Neal No, I'm doing Spanish this term, and I have got a class on Friday evening. I'm free at the weekend, though.
Toby OK, then. Let's say Saturday night.
Neal That would be great. How about seeing that new sci-fi film?
Toby Sure, why not? You know I love sci-fi films.

3. Anne Hey, Lisa. What are you up to?
Lisa Nothing much. I'm waiting for my next class.
Anne Listen, my sister is coming to visit at the weekend.
Lisa Great. I really want to meet her.
Anne I know.
Lisa Does she visit you often?
Anne Not really, so this is a good chance for the two of you to meet.

4. Paul So, what time are you coming over to study tonight?
Tom Sorry, but I can't make it. I'm going to the match tonight.
Paul Wow! Those tickets are really hard to find.
Tom Yeah, well my sister won two tickets and she doesn't like rugby at all. So, I'm going with my flatmate. Maybe we can study together tomorrow night.
Paul Sure, no problem.

Which of the following best summarises each dialogue? Match.

• arranging a meeting between two people

• discussing life at university

• cancelling plans

• planning an evening out

Dialogue 1

Dialogue 2

Dialogue 3

Dialogue 4