

SUBJECT: HUMANITIES
TEACHER: MARGARITA
GROUP: F2
NAME:

Context is:

- the circumstances that form the setting for an event, statement, or idea, and in terms of which it can be fully understood.
- the subjects or topics covered in a book or document

Purpose is:

Unreliable narrator is:

- A narrator who accurately tells the events of a story.
- A character in the story who does not tell the events of the story accurately because of his or her mental state or immaturity.
- A third-person narrator who tells how every character feels about the events of a story.
- A third-person narrator who only explains the events through one character's point of view.

Metaphor is:

Who is the author of the book «Metaphors We Live By»?

- George Lakoff And Mark Johnson
- Edgar Allan Poe
- Edward Sapir Benjamin Lee Whorf
- Noam Chomsky

Name 5 genres:

What is point of view?

- The vantage point of position from which the story is told
- When the narrator is in the story
- When the narrator is in not in the story
- A story with no perspective

Name 3 literary devices:

Match the definitions to the terms.

When the narrator tells "you" or "your" story	First-Person
When the narrator tells the story of "he" or "she" and reveals two or more characters' thoughts or feelings	Second-Person
When the narrator tells the story of "he" or "she" and does not reveal any characters' thoughts	Third-Person Objective
When the story is narrated from the perspective of "I"	Third-Person Limited
When the narrator tells the story of "he" or "she" and reveals one character's thoughts and feelings	Third-Person Omniscient

Narrator is:

Write a short text with Third-Person Omniscient point of view:

