Read about Adam	Read about Tongtong
Adam lives with his family in a modern house. His house is in a small village in Scotland. He is eleven years old and he has got an older brother, David. David is now thirteen but his younger sister, Emma, is just nine. After school, at a quarter-past-five, he goes home. He arrives home at about half-past-five because his school isn't far from his house. He does his school homework and when he finishes it, he helps his mum set the table for dinner. He puts the plates, knives, forks and glasses on the table. At half-past-seven the family all eat together. At the weekend they eat a little later. Adam is a very helpful boy and he also helps his mother clean up everything after dinner. He puts all the dirty plates into the dishwasher. He watches TV for about an hour after dinner and at about ten o'clock he goes to bed.	Tongtong lives in a large town in China. He is in Grade 1 at school. He wakes up at seven o'clock every morning and gets dressed for school. At half-past-seven Tongtong goes to school and then he has breakfast there. Yes, children get breakfast at school but they don't get lunch. At a quarter-past-eight Tongtong begins his first class. He has fortyminute classes. At twenty-five-past-eleven he goes home. No, school is not finished. He goes home for lunch and a short sleep. Tongtong must be back at school at two o'clock for more classes until four o'clock. After this all the children play. They leave school at half-past-four in the afternoon. When Tongtong arrives home he begins his homework. When he finishes his homework he has piano class for another hour. He has a very busy and very full day but he loves it.
