

Just 2 sandwiches, please. - Storytime

Just 2 sandwiches, please - Storytime
Grammar practice

1. Read the following conversation.

Kevin: Bonjour Bella!

Criss: Oh, you're here...

Kevin: Of course I am here. I mean,
I work here. So, welcome to the Daily Grind Bella!
What can I do for you?

Criss: Leave...

Kevin: Jajaja, let me guess!

A large cappuccino and some cheesecake.

Criss: Well nope. Just 2 sandwiches, please! To go.

Kevin: You are not eating here. Are you sick?

Criss: Just tired.

Kevin: Okay. 2 sandwiches. You are tired but you still eat like a horse. Anything else?

Criss: The check.

Kevin: Okay. 2 sandwiches and one vanilla ice cream

Criss: Vanilla ice cream? But I ...

Kevin: Yes. Don't worry! It's on the house. You are tired, maybe some ice cream could help you to recharge your batteries.

Criss: Oh!... Thanks.

2. Now, let's check some vocabulary. Read the expressions below and find their Spanish version.

- A. It's on the house - _____
- B. Some vanilla ice cream - _____
- C. You are tired - _____
- D. Recharge your batteries - _____
- E. You eat like a horse - _____

Just 2 sandwiches, please. - Storytime

F. Let me guess! - _____

G. Are you sick? - _____

2. Change the following sentences from affirmative to negative.

A. There are 4 apples. - _____

B. There is a pear. - _____

C. There is one car. - _____

D. There are 4 bottles of water. - _____

E. There are 3 slices of pizza. - _____

F. There is one book here. - _____

G. There is one chair in my room. - _____

3. Create questions using the sentences below. Then answer them.

A. There are 4 tomatoes. - _____

Yes, _____.

B. There is one apple. - _____

Yes, _____.

C. There are 3 bananas. - _____

No, _____.

D. There are 7 eggs. - _____

Yes, _____.

E. There is one fridge. - _____

No, _____.

Violet
Boughgouhnon