

Comparative Adjectives

	Adjective	Comparative adjective
For most one-syllable adjectives, add -(e)r for the comparative.	fast cheap	faster cheaper
For one-syllable adjectives ending in one vowel + one consonant, double the final consonant and add -er .	thin big	thinner bigger
For two-syllable adjectives ending in y , drop the y and add -ier .	easy dirty	easier dirtier
For most adjectives with two or more syllables, use more / less + the adjective.	expensive interesting	more expensive less interesting

Notes

- Use than when you use a comparative adjective in front of a noun.
Laptops are more expensive than tablets.
- Some adjectives have irregular forms: good → better bad → worse

- With a partner, complete the chart with the characteristics of each one's smartphone using this website: <https://www.gsmarena.com/>

	1:	2:
Price (dollars)
Size (body dimensions)
New (launch date)
Weight (body weight - g)
Battery (battery type - mAh) durable
RAM Memory (memory - internal)

- In your opinion, which product is better? Explain it with sentences using comparatives.

Price
Size
New
Weight
Battery
RAM Memory	