

I can sort the Animals

Read the definitions. Classify the information according to the type of animal and their characteristics

Mammals

Birds

Amphibians

Fish

Reptile

underwater life necessitates the use of gills-slits.

They have numerous fins and scales all over their body

The skin is moist, slimy, and silky in nature

Fertilization is carried out externally.
They are oviparous.

Some can fly and have wings.

- Some are aquatic animals while others inhabit terrestrial terrains.
- Hair or fur can be found completely covering the body

Feathers and wings come in different sizes and shapes

They are mostly terrestrial animals
They have a strong backbone