

POLITICAL

Correctness

Match the politically incorrect words with their alternatives

- Illegal Alien
- Fat
- Indian
- Disabled
- Blacklist
- Mankind
- The elderly
- Spokesman
- Third-world
- Senior citizens
- Native American
- Spokesperson
- Underdeveloped
- Humankind
- Ban
- Undocumented
- Overweight
- Person with disability

Read part of a political speech and choose the correct option to complete the blanks

As we stand here today, it's imperative that we address some of the pressing issues facing our society.

For too long, countries have been marginalized, for their economic disparities and lack of opportunities. It's time for us to extend a hand of solidarity, to empower these nations to rise from the shadows of poverty and reclaim their rightful place on the global stage.

Our, the pillars of wisdom in our communities, deserve our respect and care. It is unacceptable that so many of them struggle to make ends meet, facing financial insecurity and inadequate healthcare. We owe it to them to ensure their golden years are free from the burden of worry and hardship.

The people, stewards of this land long before our arrival, continue to face systemic discrimination and neglect. We must honor our commitments to their sovereignty and rights, working in partnership to preserve their rich cultural heritage for

..... immigrants, our neighbors and friends, live in the shadows of uncertainty, fearing deportation and separation from their loved ones. We cannot turn a blind eye to their plight. Instead, we must strive for comprehensive immigration reform that upholds our values of compassion and humanity while securing our borders.