

Social Studies Quiz

The History of Trinidad & Tobago

1. Our twin island republic consists of many races, religions and customs. Therefore, we can be considered as

-----.

2. Christopher Columbus arrived in Trinidad and Tobago, but they met the Amerindians who came from

-----.

3. The ----- brought the Africans as slaves.

4. The ----- contributed the

5. These three ships ----- belonged to Christopher Columbus; they can be found on our

-----.

Drag the box to complete the statements above.

Europeans

Spanish

multi-cultural

South America

Coat of Arms

Carnival

Select the correct answer.

Carnival was first introduced by the	French Africans
The steelpan competition is called	Pan Fest Panorama
The song played most on Carnival Monday and Tuesday is known as	So long I eh see yuh Road March
People parading in costumes are called	mas masqueraders
Those who just look at the masqueraders dance in the streets are known as	crowd spectators