

Living Animals

Write the answers for each questions.

1. Why do scientists classify animals into group?

Blank space for answer 1.

2. What are the two main animal groups?

Blank space for answer 2.

3. What are traits?

Blank space for answer 3.

4. Why do animals from the same group have the same traits?

5. What are some of the characteristics of the sponges?

6. What features of arthropods have helped them to become the most abundant animals group on earth?

7. Reptiles are cold-blooded. What does cold-blooded mean?

8. How are birds different from reptiles?

A large, empty rectangular box with a brown border and wavy lines on the left and right sides, intended for writing an answer.

