

Comparative & Superlative Adjectives

We use _____ adjectives to talk about the difference between two people or things and say who has more of something:

- I am taller than my best friends.

We use _____ adjectives to talk about the difference between three or more people or things and say who has the most of something:

- I am the tallest in my class.

Regular Adjectives Forms

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
most adjectives add -er or -est	small____, cold____ than	the small____ the cold____ adjectives ending in -e (nice, large) add -r or -st	nice____, large____ than	the nice____ the large____ adjectives ending in vowel + consonant (big, thin), double the consonant and add -er or -est	bigger, thin____ than	the biggest the thin____ adjectives ending in -y (heavy, pretty) change the -y to -i and add -er or -est	heavier, prett____ than	the heaviest the prett____
some two-syllable adjectives add -er , -est or use more , the most Adj. ending in -ow , -le , -er and polite, common, quiet and stupid	Sally is politer than me = Sally is more polite than me.	Sally is the politest girl in the class = Sally is the most polite girl in the class
two-syllable adjectives ending in -ful or longer adjectives (difficult, important) add more or most	more difficult than _____ important than	the most difficult _____ important

Irregular Adjectives Forms

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
good	_____	the best bad	worse than _____	_____
far	_____/further than _____	the farthest/_____

Remember!

We often use than / the after comparative adjectives.

- I am younger _____ my brother.

We often use than / the before superlative adjectives.

- She is _____ youngest person in her family.

We often use phrases like these after comparative / superlative adjectives: in my family, in the world, in the class (NOT of my family, of the world, of the class).

We use "as ... as" to compare two things that are the same and "not as ... as" to say they are different:

- My best friend is as tall as me.
- I am not as young as my brother.