

★ ALL STARS ★

QUANTIFIERS AND DIALOGUES!

Look at the chart below. Here you are going to find the quantifiers classification and the order of degree as regards quantity,

	COUNTABLE	UNCOUNTABLE
100%	ALL (todos) EVERY (cada/cada uno)
	A LOT OF (un montón de)
	MANY (muchos)	MUCH (mucho)
	SOME (alguno/algunos)
	A FEW (unos pocos)	A LITTLE (un poco/poco)
	ANY (ningún/ninguno)
0%	NO

Let's practice the uses for the quantifiers and intonation with the following dialogues. Decide which the quantifier we need and if we can use falling or rising intonation.

★ Waitress: Hello, how much / many glasses of wine do you want?

Customer: Two, please. How much / many for the Merlot?

Waitress: Excuse me, sir. We have no / any Merlot left.

★ Customer: Hello! I want all / much the tables of the restaurant, please.

Waiter: Excuse me, sir. That is not possible.

I can't give you every / each table here.

Customer: How many / much tables do you have left?

Waiter: There are some / little ... Let me see... Wait here a moment, please.

★ Restaurant Owner: So... How many / much friends are coming to your birthday party?

Customer: Just a few / some... Is there enough room for 500 people?

Restaurant Owner: Are you serious? That's a lot / too much of people! I can offer you the terrace for a little / a few more money.

Customer: How much / many?

Restaurant owner: 5,000 dollars every / all space.

Customer: Ok, I will take it