Anna: Is there a supermarket?
Robert: Yes, there is, but you should go to the market. It's an indoor market. It's open every day. There are some great bakeries and a great delicatessen. You can buy some nice food there. It's better quality than the supermarket.
Anna: Okay, that sounds good. And I need something for my sister too.
Robert: There is a nice jeweller's near the market. You will find some nice gifts there.
Anna: Oh yes, I remember it. Next to the lovely florist's.
Robert: That's right.
Anna: Great. And is there a toy shop? I'd like to buy a game for my brother.
Robert: No, sorry, there aren't any toy shops here. But you can buy toys at Hauffman's. That's a department store. It's in the centre of town.
Anna: Good idea, I'll try that. Oh, is there a pharmacy near here?
I need some sun cream.
Robert: Yes, there's a pharmacy at the end of this street, next to the post office.
Anna: Great.
Robert: Actually, can you buy some things for me while you are in town?
Anna: Sure. What do you need?
Robert: Could you get some chicken for dinner tonight? There's a butcher's in the Listen and complete the shopping list.

Can you buy some ……., some …….and some ……..?

Anna: Sure. No problem.

Robert: I'll give you some money. Ah – no, I don't have any. I need to go to the bank. I can go there later.

Anna: Don't worry, I'll buy them.

Robert: Are you sure?

Anna: Of course.

Robert: Thanks very much!
