1. Revise the rule of Present Simple:

Pronoun	Affirmative	Negative
I	play	don't play
You
We
They

Pronoun	Affirmative	Negative
He	plays	doesn't play
She
It

2. Read the story and type the correct form of the verb. Use the rules of Present Simple in the table above:

My Pet Dog

Having a pet dog is a lot of fun! Let me tell you about my dog and what he does every day.

My dog's name is Max. He is a friendly golden retriever. Every morning, Max _____ (wake) me up with his wet nose and wagging tail. He _____ (lick) my face and _____ (wait) for me to get out of bed.

After I _____ (go) for a walk in the park. He _____ (sniff) around and _____ (chase) after squirrels. Sometimes, he _____ (find) sticks and _____ (bring) them back to me to throw.

When we ___ (come) back home, Max _____ (drink) water and _____ (eat) his breakfast. Then, he _____ (curl) up in his bed and _____ (take) a nap.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

In the afternoon, Max _____ (play) with his favorite toy. He _____ (run) around the yard and _____ (fetch) the ball. Sometimes, he _____ (bark) at the mailman or _____ (chase) butterflies.

In the evening, Max _____ (snuggle) with me on the couch while we _____ (watch) TV. He _____ (fall) asleep with his head on my lap.

At night, Max _____ (sleep) in his bed next to mine. He _____ (dream) of chasing rabbits and squirrels.

Having Max as my pet is the best thing ever!

Answer the following questions:

1. What is the name of the pet dog in the story?

2. What does the pet dog do every morning to wake up the owner?

3. What does the pet dog bring back to the narrator after finding it in the park?

4. Where does the pet dog sleep at night?

5. What activity does the pet dog enjoy in the afternoon with its favorite toy?

LIVEWORKSHEETS