VIDEO SCRIPT

Ed So, did you have a nice weekend?
Emma Yeah, it was good.
Ed Yeah, what did you do?
Emma Well, I went shopping on Saturday, [1] _____ .
Ed Yeah.
Emma And then I was singing on Sunday.
Ed Really? I didn't know [2] _____ . Where do you do that?
Emma It's a local choir. I do it at the cultural centre in town and then we do concerts occasionally.
Ed OK. So, are you any good?
Emma Well, [3] _____ an opera singer. I'm OK with others, but I wouldn't sing solo.
Ed No?
Emma Well, karaoke maybe, but not in a concert.
Ed So, how long [4] _____ ?
Emma What? The choir?
Ed Yeah.
Emma Well, in this one, about a year, but I've always liked singing. I did [5] _____ – I was in a musical once.
Ed Wow – but not singing solo?
Emma No. Acting and then in the chorus.
Ed [6] _____ ?
Emma 'West Side Story'.
Ed Oh, right. I don't know it.
Emma [7] _____ some of the songs – they're really famous.
Ed How do they go?
Emma Like 'America' – la la la la la America, la la la la la America, la la la la la America! I like to be in a America! OK by me in America! Everything free in America!
Ed No. [8] _____ . Any others?
Emma Not that I'll sing now! Are you sure you've never heard of it?
Ed Sure! So, how often do you do concerts?
Emma Not that often – maybe once or twice a year, but we meet and sing once a week. It's great – you should come along!
Ed Me! [9] _____ at singing!
Emma Really?
Ed Seriously, I scare the birds when I sing – they fly away!
Emma You don't sing in the shower?
Ed Yeah, but everyone sounds OK in the shower.
Emma Never karaoke?
Ed Once or twice, but it's not the same!
Emma Yes, it is! Everybody can sing. Seriously, I'm [10] _____ . You should come.
Ed I don't know.
Emma What's your karaoke song?
Ed 'Hey Jude'.
Emma You see – great song!
Both Na, na, na, nanana naaa. Na na na naaa. Hey Jude ...
