The Importance of English

I personally think that English is the world's most important language. Why do I say that? I am going to elaborate my two big reasons about this matter.

Firstly, English is an international language. It is spoken by many people all around the world, either as a first or second language. Experts have conducted many researches about English as the universal language. It proves that the most useful language use to connect everyone around the globe is English itself.

Secondly, English is also the key which opens doors to scientific and technical knowledge, which is needed for the economic and political development of many countries in the world.

In conclusion, English is a top requirement of those seeking jobs. Applicants who master either active or passive English are more favorable than those who for not. From the fact above, it is obvious that everybody needs to learn English to greet the global era.
