3. Look at the pictures. Complete the short answers.

1. A: Will they go to the beach today?
   B: _No, they won't_ .

2. A: Will she turn on the TV?
   B: _____ .

3. A: Will he buy the magazine?
   B: _____ .

4. A: Will her father call a doctor?
   B: _____ .

5. A: Will they send out the invitations soon?
   B: _____ .

6. A: Will she put up decorations for the party?
   B: _____ .

4. Complete the conversations with will or won't. Use the prompts. Use contractions when possible.

1. A: _Will you come_ _____ (you / come) to the team meeting?
   B: _I'll probably be_ _____ (I / be / probably) a little late.

2. A: _____ (you / eat) stuffed rocoto peppers in Arequipa?
   B: _____ (I / have / probably) them. They say they're delicious.

3. A: _____ (how long / you / be) at the gym?
   B: _____ (I / not / stay) there very long. About a half hour.

4. A: _____ (what time / you / finish) your homework tonight?
   B: _____ (I / not / finish) until about 9:00.

5. A: _____ (you / go) shopping at the mall tomorrow?
   B: _____ (I / not / probably). I have too much homework.

5. Each statement has an error. Write the statement correctly.

1. I won't probably do my homework until after dinner. _I probably won't do my homework until after dinner._

2. My sister will maybe play on the volleyball team next year. _____

3. We'll go probably to a basketball game next week. _____

4. Definitely will you stay home tomorrow? _____

5. The other school's team will maybe win the game tomorrow. _____

6. We won't definitely go to the beach today. _____