

21. What is an online personal profile?

- A physical photo album
- A type of online game
- A digital representation of oneself on websites or apps
- A collection of printed documents

22. Why is it important to use unique and strong passwords for your online accounts?

- Because it's easier to remember
- Because weak passwords are trendy
- To protect your accounts from hackers
- To make your friends jealous

23. How can identity theft occur online?

- Through stolen wallets
- Via phishing emails and hacking
- By opening credit card accounts
- All of the above

24. What is another name for CPU registers?

- Main memory
- Immediate Access Store
- Control Unit
- Hard drive

25. Which of the following is NOT a valid variable name in Python?

- user_age
- 123count
- Discount_rATe
- totalAmount

26. What does the function `print("Hello, World!")` do in Python?

- It calculates the sum of two numbers
- It asks the user for input
- It displays "Hello, World!" on the screen
- It defines a variable.

27. What is one potential risk of downloading files from unknown sources?

- Improved computer performance
- Increased storage space
- Exposure to malware or viruses
- Faster internet connection

28. In Python, what is the data type used for decimal numbers?

- Int
- Char
- Boolean
- Float

29. Which arithmetic operation is used to find the remainder of a division operation?

- +
- /
- *
- %

30. Which CPU component manages the flow of data and instructions between different parts of the CPU?

- Control Unit (CU)
- Main Memory
- Arithmetic Logic Unit (ALU)
- Registers