41. What is the primary purposes of antivirus software?
    - To create strong passwords
    - To remove all files from your computer
    - To download file to computer
    - To scan for and remove viruses and malware
42. What can people do with the information you share online?
    - Nothing
    - Make new friends
    - Make judgments about you
    - Send you gifts
43. What is the definition of a variable in programming?
    - A fixed value that cannot be changed
    - A temporary data store that can hold different types of data
    - A keyword used to control loops
    - A constant value used for calculation
44. What are the three main elements found in every computer program or algorithm?
    - Sequencing, iteration, and multiplication
    - Loops, variables, and functions
    - Sequencing, iteration, and selection
    - Colors, shapes, and sizes.
45. Which data type is used to store single characters, such as letters or symbols?
    - String
    - List
    - Char
    - Integer
46. What does the data type "Boolean" represent?
    - Decimal numbers
    - True/False values
    - Positive/Negative numbers
    - Lists of data
47. What should you do if you receive a suspicious email asking for your persona; information?
    - Reply with your information
    - Click on any links attached
    - Ignore and delete it
    - Forward it to all your contacts
48. How can you protect your personal information online?
    - Share it with strangers
    - Use weak password
    - Be cautious about sharing details
    - All of the above
49. What should you do if you encounter inappropriate online content?
    - Share it with friends
    - Report it to a trusted adult
    - Ignore it and continue browsing
    - Delete your internet history
50. What is the correct way to define a variable in Python?
    - Var x = 5
    - X = 5
    - Variable x = 5
    - X : =5

LIVEWORKSHEETS