1 _____
Architects plan and design houses, factories, office buildings, and other structures.

2 _____
Architects spend much of their time in offices, where they develop plans, meet with clients, and consult with engineers and other architects. They also visit construction sites to prepare initial drawings and review the progress of projects to ensure that clients' objectives are met. About 1 in 5 were self-employed in 2014.

3 _____
There are typically three main steps to becoming a licensed architect: completing a professional degree in architecture, gaining relevant experience through a paid internship, and passing the Architect Registration Examination.

4 _____
The median annual wage for architects was $76,100 in May 2015.

5 _____
Employment of architects is projected to grow 7 per cent from 2014 to 2024, about as fast as the average for all occupations. Competition for jobs will be very strong because the number of applicants continues to outnumber available positions.
