

4 SPEAKING

- A   Pronunciation: Contractions with be. Practice saying these full and contracted (shorter) forms with a partner. Then listen and repeat. CD 1 Track 5

I am → I'm → I'm a student.

What is → What's → What's your name?

It is → It's → It's nice to meet you.

- B  Pronunciation: Contractions with be. Say the words in blue with your instructor. Then listen to the audio. Circle the words you hear. CD 1 Track 6

1. A: Hi, I am / I'm Ken.

B: What is / What's your last name, Ken?

A: It is / It's Tanaka. /tə'nokə/

B: Great. And what is / what's your student ID number?

A: It's 524.

2. A: What is / What's your name, please?

B: It is / It's Maria Fuentes.

A: Hmm, you are / you're not on my class list. Your last name is Fuentes?

B: Yes, that is / that's right.

- C  Pronunciation: Contractions with be. Practice the dialogs in B with a partner.

- D   Listen to the conversation. Then practice with a partner. CD 1 Track 7

LILING: Hi, my name's Liling. What's your name?

ALBERTO: Hi, Liling. I'm Alberto, but please call me Beto. It's my nickname.

LILING: Okay, Beto. Nice to meet you.

ALBERTO: It's nice to meet you, too.

- E  Practice the conversation again with your partner. Use your own names.

SPEAKING STRATEGY

- F  Use the Useful Expressions. Meet six classmates. Write their names in the box.

My classmates' names are...

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

- G  Say your classmates' names to a partner.

Useful Expressions

Introducing yourself

Hi, what's your name?

Hi, my name is Liling.

I'm Liling. / It's Liling.

My name is Mr. Porter.

I'm Alberto, but please call me Beto.

(It's) nice to meet you.

(It's) nice to meet you, too.

Speaking Tip

You can use My name is... or I'm... to introduce yourself.