

79 who, when, where, why

1 who, when, where, why

Wh- WORD	USE	EXAMPLE
who	asks about a person or people	Who's your teacher this year?
when	asks about time	When did you get it?
where	asks about place	Where can we put it?
why	asks for a reason	Why do we need it?

After who, when, where or why in questions, we need a verb:

Who is the best actor in the film?

Why did the Romans come to Britain?

! We cannot put a noun after them:

~~Where place does the president live?~~

✓ Where does the president live?

2 Wh- questions + prepositions

If there is a verb + preposition in a statement, we often need to use the preposition at the end of a wh- question:

They're talking about the director. → Who are they talking about?

! Angelo is writing to his friend. ~~Who is Angelo writing?~~

✓ Who is Angelo writing to?

But with when and where questions, we don't usually put a preposition at the end of the question:

I was born in London. Where were you born?

I was born on 30 August. When were you born?

I'm going to the cinema. Where are you going?

! But we say: 'Where are you from?' 'I'm from Paris.'
