

Test 27

Study the meaning of the words.

Word	Definition	Translation
watch	to be a spectator, simply to look and see what is happening	спостерігати, слідкувати; дивитися, спостерігати
observe	to look very carefully in the hope of learning something, especially in science	спостерігати, стежити (за чим-небудь); вести (наукові) спостереження; вивчати (за допомогою спостереження)
see (saw, seen)	to become aware of somebody/ something by using your eyes	бачити
look	to turn your eyes in a particular direction	дивитися

Choose the best variant of answer.

- "I didn't play, I didn't! I only _____", the boy explained.
A watched B observed C looked
- It's extremely interesting to _____ ships unload their cargoes.
A see B watch C observe
- A group of scientists is _____ an eclipse of the sun.
A watching B observing C looking
- They _____ the eagle till it was out of sight over the hill.
A looked B observed C watched
- My friend _____ the behavior of birds.
A watches B looks C observes
- If you can find the planet Jupiter and have a telescope, you can _____ its four large satellites, first seen by Galileo in 1610.
A look B watch C observe
- The physicist remained late in the laboratory to _____ the result of his experiment.
A observe B watch C look
- Are you going to play or only to _____?
A look B watch C observe
- When it's getting dark, one can _____ the birds come home from the tall trees where they spend the night.
A watch B observe C look
- My father and I always _____ international football matches on TV.
A watch B observe C look
- "What is your job in the experimental garden?" — "I _____ the development of rice in it."
A look B observe C watch
- She _____ at me and smiled.
A observed B looked C watched