

Test 28

Study the meaning of the words.

Word	Definition	Translation
dress	to put on clothes	одягати; наряджати; одягатися, наряджатися, вбиратися
put on (put on, put on)	to place clothes on any part of your body	надягати
wear (wore, worn)	to have on the body	бути вдягненим (у що-н.); носити (одяг)

Choose the best variant of answer.

- When spring comes she always _____ a flower in the button-hole of her costume.
A puts on B dresses C wears
- "What are you going to _____ at our fancy-dress party?" — "I think, I'll _____ like a pirate."
A wear B dress C put on
- They asked me how he was _____ but I could not recollect what he was _____.
A dressed, wearing B wore, dressing C dressed, putting on
- Why aren't you _____ your rubber boots? The country road is very muddy.
A putting on B dressing C wearing
- Please, help me to _____ the children.
A put on B dress C wear
- The mother _____ the child and told him to wait for her on the yard.
A put on B dressed C wore
- She is so beautiful and she _____ well.
A put on B dresses C wears
- Don't _____ your overcoat, it's very warm outside.
A wear B put on C dress
- "Is she always _____ in white?" — "Yes, she enjoys ... white."
A put on, wearing B dressed, wearing C wear, putting on
- Why haven't you _____ your hat? The sun is very strong.
A dressed B worn C put on
- She doesn't _____ glasses on the stage.
A wear B put on C dress
- He was still _____ when I came in.
A putting on B wearing C dressing