

FILL IN THE BLANKS.

NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS

I'm Mary Benson. My job is a challenge. I love it. It's exciting and it's exactly what I've been studying for. Basically, I work with _____ all day. I work with _____ and I prepare accounts and things like that. In other words, I deal with the money coming in and going out of the company.

My name's John Jackson. I've been working for F&M for over ten years now and in the same department and I'm the _____ now. So, I know what's going on here very well. We work on _____ strategies. We decide what type of _____ is better for our products and also what packaging can be more attractive for our customers.

I'm Ted Jones. My department _____ the...Let's say, "physical creation of the products". That's all we do.

I'm Paul Bianco. I've got a degree in Psychology but I've always had a passion of the world of business and the economy. So, this is a right job for me. I work in the company and my responsibility is to _____ staff which means contracts, recruitments, _____, and their welfare in general.

My name's Jenifer Wilson. I coordinate the company's _____. That basically involves all aspects of selling our products to clients.

I'm David King. My department's responsibilities are _____ everything for the company. In particular, we make sure that all materials necessary for producing our products are available.