

Always – Gavin James

What am I/you supposed to do without you?
Is/Are it too late to pick the pieces up?
Too soon to let them stay/go?
Do you feel happiness/damaged just like I do?
Your/My face, it makes my body ache
It won't leave me alone

And this feels/wants like drowning
Good/Trouble sleeping
Restless/Hopeless dreaming

_____ in my head
Always, _____
I _____ got scared
Away, away
I'd rather choke on my _____ decisions
Then just _____ them to my grave
You're in my _____
Always, always, always

Cracks won't fix and the minds/scars won't fade away
I guess I/he should get used to this
The left side of my bed's an empty space/part
I remember/know we were strangers
So tell me what's the similarities/difference
Between then and now/after

And why/what does this feel like drowning?
Bad/Trouble sleeping
Good/Restless dreaming

You're in my _____
Always, always
I just got _____ _____, away
I'd rather choke on my bad _____
Then just carry them to my _____
_____ in my head
Always, always, always
Always, always

You're in my head/mind
Always, always
I just got scared/happy
Away, away
I know there's nothing right/left to cling to
But I'm still calling/asking out your name
You're in my mind/head
Always, always, always

Always, always, always
