

Module
Competency
Task

Canadian Citizenship – Rights, Freedoms, and Responsibilities
Reading CLB 3.4 Comprehending Information
Read the examples and match with the freedom, rights, or responsibilities.

— Freedom of Religion	1. Everyone in my company who has the same job receives the same pay.
— Freedom of Speech	2. I can join many people and protest the government. We can do this if we don't hurt anyone.
— Freedom of Peaceful Assembly	3. I can say anything I want about people in the government if I don't lie.
— Electoral Rights	4. I can take a few days off work or school for religious holidays.
— Equality Rights	5. I can move to any province or territory in Canada if I want.
— Legal Rights	6. I can vote in an election if I show my ID.
— Mobility Rights	7. I drive carefully, I pay taxes and car insurance. I have a business that follows the laws.
— We Should Vote in Elections.	8. I have many friends from different races and religions.
— We Must Be Loyal to Canada.	9. I speak English and help other people in my neighbourhood. I volunteer.
— We Must Obey the Laws.	10. I teach my children to love Canada and be good citizens.
— We Must Not Discriminate Against Others.	11. I try to keep the environment clean. I like to learn about Canada and understand Canadian culture.
— We Must Participate in the Community.	12. I try to learn about elections and how to vote. I vote for the person I think is best for the government.
— We Must Care for Canada's Heritage.	13. If I get in trouble, the government will give me a lawyer if I need one but don't have enough money.

Adapted from Cameron, Judy and Tracey Derwing, Being Canadian, 3rd edition, "Becoming a Canadian" (Saint-Laurent, QC: Pearson Longman, 2010).