2a Match 1–5 to a–e to make predictions for 2050.

By 2050, ...

1 we won't go to a human doctor.
2 we'll be able to communicate with some animals.
3 we won't see many forest fires.
4 we'll be able to see dinosaurs at the zoo.
5 we'll be able to change the weather.

a Wildlife experts will teach them to talk.
b We'll control when it rains and when it's sunny.
c Scientists will invent technology to create them.
d A robot will check our health at home.
e Drones will fly above them and stop them burning.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5a Use the prompts to make predictions about you.

- have a driverless car
- go into space
- study to be a doctor
- have lots of pets
- live in the countryside
- work as a blogger
- move to another country
- have friends living on another planet

I think I'll/I don't think I will ...

5b SPEAKING Ask and answer about your predictions in 5a.

Will you have a driverless car?

Yes, I think I will

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7 Look at what Mason, Liam and Ava are doing this weekend at the Animal Adventure Park. Then complete the sentences.

1 Mason, Liam and Ava are meeting the dolphins at ten o'clock on Saturday morning.
2 Liam and Ava ..... at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning.
3 Mason, Liam and Ava ..... at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon.
4 Ava ..... at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon.
5 Mason and Liam ..... at ten o'clock on Sunday morning.
6 Mason ..... at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning.
7 Liam ..... at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8 Write present continuous questions for future.

1 What / you / do / tonight / ?

2 What / you / do / after school tomorrow / ?

3 Where / you / go / on Saturday / ?

4 your parents / eat out / this weekend / ?

5 you and your friends / meet / on Sunday / ?

6 What time / you / finish / school today / ?

LIVEWORKSHEETS