

PRE-INTERMEDIATE UNIT 3

- 1 Work in pairs and discuss. How do you usually spend your free time?
- 2 Read the extracts from the Exciting Experiences website and put the experiences in your order of preference (1 = best, 4 = worst). Compare your ideas with a partner.

1 Photography tour of London at night

This tour is perfect for anyone keen on photography – beginners and experienced photographers alike. Spend an evening visiting some of London's most iconic sights like Big Ben and Piccadilly Circus, and receive expert tips on creating beautiful images after dark.

All our guides are local professional photographers who love helping people improve their skills.

2 Zookeeper for a day

This experience is an animal-lover's dream! You learn all about the daily routines of lots of different animals from an expert and have plenty of opportunities to get your hands dirty! You work with a zookeeper at a local zoo for a whole day, doing everything from feeding baby penguins and lions to washing African elephants. Your day begins when the animals wake up, so be prepared for an early start!

3 Sushi-making class

This class teaches you everything you need to know about making sushi from scratch. Learn all about the ingredients and different types of sushi, then prepare four different dishes by yourself. You don't need to be good at cooking because our teachers are top Japanese chefs who will teach you how to cut the fish and prepare the rice and vegetables to make a delicious, healthy meal. After class, share your mouth-watering creations with your classmates and receive your very own sushi-making kit to take home with you!

4 Secret Agent School

Are you fed up with doing the same things every weekend? Do something different and spend a day learning all about how to be a spy from real ex-secret agents! They teach you all you need to know, from where to hide cameras to how to crack codes. You get to play with lots of spy gadgets and learn how to defend yourself against evil villains*!

*evil villains = the bad characters in a book or film
