

ENGLISH IDIOMS

IDIOMS

- Raining cats and dogs: it rains a lot.
- Under the weather: sick.
- All ears: listen attentively.
- Better late than never: no matter the time, it's better to do it.
- Kill two birds with one stone: do two things at the same time.
- Break a leg: good luck.
- Cost an arm and a leg: very expensive.
- Hold your horses: hold on.
- Ball is in your court: make the last decision.
- Hit the sack: go to bed.

Look at the sentences and choose the right idiom to complete it.

- I am feeling a bit _____. I think I'm getting a cold.
- Tell me who was at the party. I am _____.
- I'd better _____ now. I'm feeling really exhausted.
- Please help me do my English homework and my Spanish essay. Let's _____.
- When the team went out for the final race, the coach shouted out to them _____.
- His family and friends requested him to apologize to his boss to save his job. _____.
- The show is excellent, but the tickets _____.
- _____! We have not won yet, so don't start celebrating.
- I know that it took me weeks to send the letter, but _____.
- It's _____ I am worried about how my kids are going to reach home.