Business idioms revision

Change the words and phrases below into matching idioms.

1. We need to get environmentalists and businesses to agree to improve things in the future.
   We need to get environmentalists and businesses _____ to improve things in the future.
2. You have to go through endless bureaucracy to get a residence permit.
   You have to go through endless _____ to get a residence permit.
3. The best time for you to stay quiet is the time you feel you must say something or bust.
   The best time for you to _____ is the time you feel you must say something or bust.
4. She's just started. It'll take her a week or two to know how to do her job.
   She's just started. It'll take her a week or two to _____.
5. We have to make a start on this project soon.
   We have to _____ on this project soon.
6. I hate going to the dentist, but I suppose I'll just have to force myself.
   I hate going to the dentist, but I suppose I'll just have to _____.
7. It's unlikely, but someone might recognise her from the photo and be able to tell us where she lives.
   It's _____, but someone might recognise her from the photo and be able to tell us where she lives.
8. The key thing is that we need another ten thousand dollars to complete the project.
   _____ is that we need another ten thousand dollars to complete the project.
9. To be competitive, they paid low wages and cut costs on health and safety.
   To be competitive, they paid low wages and _____ on health and safety.

LIVEWORKSHEETS