

Little Red Riding Hood versi 1

(Traditional Version)

One day, Little Red Riding Hood's mother gave her a basket with some cake inside and told her to walk through the forest to the other side where her grandmother lay sick in bed. "Remember not to talk to strangers!" Little Red Riding Hood's mother said.

On the way to her grandmother's house, Little Red Riding Hood met the Big Bad Wolf.

"Where are you going little girl?" he asked with his biggest smile.

"To my grandmother's house on the other side of the forest," said Little Red Riding Hood who had forgotten what her mother told her.

The wolf took a shortcut and ran ahead to Grandmother's house. When he got there, he went inside and swallowed Grandmother whole! Then he put on her cap and nightgown and climbed into her bed.

When Little Red Riding Hood got there, she walked right up to the bed. "Grandmother! What big ears you have," she said.

"All the better to hear you with my dear," said the wolf.

"And what big eyes you have," she said.

"All the better to see you with my dear," said the wolf.

"And what big teeth you have," said Little Red Riding Hood.

“All the better to eat you with!” said the wolf and he jumped out of bed and started chasing Little Red Riding Hood.

A man who was chopping wood in the forest heard Little Red Riding Hood. He came inside and hit the wolf over the head with his axe. The wolf fell to the ground, and Grandmother popped out of his mouth. Then the woodsman, Little Red Riding Hood, and Grandmother all had cake and tea.
