2 Complete the dialogue by choosing the correct form of can, have to or must.

Ali: I'm so pleased you 0 can / have to come to my house tonight, Ben.

Ben: Yes, but I 1 can't / don't have to stay too late. My parents say that I 2 can / have to be back home by 9.30.

Ali: That's OK. It gives us lots of time to play games or watch TV. My parents aren't very strict. They say I 3 mustn't / don't have to take food to my bedroom, but I 4 can't / don't have to tell them what programme I'm watching or which game I'm playing. You 5 can / have to choose what to play if you like.

Ben: Thanks. My dad says he 6 has to / doesn't have to check all of my games and tells me to stop playing after 20 minutes – it's really boring!

Ali: And 7 do you have to / can you show him all your films too?

Ben: Of course! But I have some others that I don't tell him about! You 8 don't have to / mustn't tell him, though.

Ali: Of course not!
