

Example: Our top story tonight is the typhoon that continues to take people's lives and destroy property. The storm is still very severe, and government officials are asking other countries for help.

1. The (_____) still hasn't stopped, and there's nowhere for the water to go. People's homes are becoming filled with (_____) and many roads are covered as well. If you need to get somewhere, a boat will be more useful than a (_____).

2. Experts predict that the coming (_____) will be terrible. They feel certain that an evacuation will be (_____) and that there will be a lot of destruction and many casualties. Some are even advising people to (_____) their homes now, before the storm hits.

3. Officials are trying to determine the (_____) of people affected by yesterday's storm. However, it's difficult to determine casualties, because there is still a very large number of people who haven't been found. Search and rescue teams have been formed to look for (_____).

4. Although last week's (_____) had a huge economic impact on the town of Hamilton, we are pleased to announce that the (_____) toll from the disaster is zero.

5. You should always keep some supplies ready in case of (_____) injuries. Your supplies should include ointment, bandages, and (_____).