Comparatives & Superlatives

Complete the descriptions using the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in brackets

GRAVITY FALLS

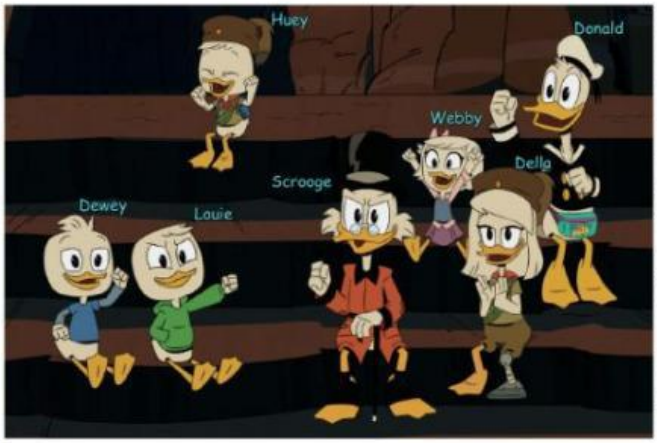

Wendy is _____ (tall) than Mabel. Wendy is _____ (old) than Dipper and Mabel, but Stan is _____ (old) of them all. Mabel is _____ (funny) than Dipper and Dipper is _____ (serious) than Mabel. Soos is _____ (fat) of them all. And Soos is _____ (strong) than Stan. Mabel is _____ (kind) than Stan. But Stan is _____ (tricky) of them all. Wendy is _____ (lazy) than Soos. But Wendy is _____ (calm) person in the group.

SCOOBY-DOO

Fred is _____ (strong) than Shaggy. Shaggy is _____ (tall) and _____(thin) than Fred. Fred is _____ (brave) than Shaggy. Daphne is _____ (beautiful) than Velma. Daphne is _____ (curious) than Shaggy. And Daphne is _____ (helpful) than Fred. Velma is _____ (clever) of them all. Sheggy is _____ (funny) than Daphne, but Scooby is _____ (funny) of them all. Shaggy is _____ (lazy) person in the group. Scooby is usually _____ (hungry) of them all.

DUCK TALES

Della is _____ (calm) than Donald. Webby is _____ (helpful) than Huey. But Huey is _____ (clever) among his brothers. Scrooge is _____ (rich) duck in the world. Donald is _____ (rude) than Della. Scrooge is _____ (old) of them all. Louie is _____ (tricky) among his siblings. And Dewey is _____ (friendly) than Louie. Webby is _____ (curious) than Huey, but Scrooge is _____ (curious) in the group. Donald is _____ (noisy) than Della. Webby is _____ (cheerful) person in the group.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS