

Name: _____

G4 - Class: _____

Subject: Technology and Innovation

April 2023

Digital Citizenship Vocabulary

Reliable Sites	To think different about a subject
Disagree	When someone does not use its real name, it can be used a nickname.
Uncomfortable	It is a new creation, an independent work, not a copy. Could be a text, book, image, drawing, movie, song, music, performance, play, etc.
Anonymity	Sites that belong to serious organizations, and you can trust the contents.
Original work	To feel sad, upset or ashamed about something.
Minors	It is a set of rules for about how to behave online.
Intellectual property	People under 18 years old, include babies, children and teens.
Netiquette	Refers to creations of the mind, such as inventions; literary and artistic works; designs; and symbols, names and images, etc.

Acceso Digital  completa participación electrónica en la sociedad	Comercio Digital  compra y venta de productos a través de medios electrónicos	Comunicación Digital  intercambio electrónico de información	Alfabetización Digital  proceso de enseñanza y aprendizaje acerca de la tecnología y su uso	Etiqueta Digital  estándares electrónicos de conducta o procedimiento
Leyes Digitales  responsabilidad electrónica ante hechos y acciones	Responsabilidades y Derechos Digitales  libertad extendida a todos en el mundo digital	Salud y Bienestar Digitales  bienestar físico y psicológico en el mundo tecnológico digital	Seguridad Digital  precauciones electrónicas para garantizar la seguridad

Copyright	Apps to get in touch with family, friends and other people, and share information online.
Digital footprint	A password that is hard to guess, includes numbers, letters and special symbols.
Social Networks	The law that protects intellectual property and original work.
Screen time	Everything that you upload to internet, messages, photos, comments, etc.
Strong passwords	All the time that you are in front of an electronic device, it could be a smartphone, a tablet, a laptop, etc.
Post	Everything that you or someone else has posted online about you will be forever in internet.
private	All the content that is in digital version and is online, could be music, videos, texts, photos, pictures, books, magazines, newspapers, etc.
Digital media	The "friends" who are only in touch when they are online, through a video game, an application or social networks. Not face to face.
Online friends	Something that belongs only to you, it can not be shared, must be kept as a secret.

