The Tiger Tour

Hello. I'm Stephen Mills. I will travel with you on the Tiger Tour to India, but I'm not your tour guide. I work as an artist and I'm going to take some photographs of tigers so that I can use them when I paint some pictures later. An expert guide will join the group when we arrive in India, but I'm leading the group until then.

We leave London on (14)....., arriving in India the following day. It's a good time of year to (15)..... where the tigers live. The rainy season finishes in October. And later in the year, the park gets more crowded and the tigers become shy.

We'll spend ten days in the wildlife park. There are twenty other types of animal and three hundred types of bird to (16)..... There are eighteen of us altogether and everything is organised for our comfort by the tour company. For example, although (17)....., we won't have to sleep (18).....! The hotels where we'll stay are all very comfortable.

On the way back to London, we have dinner and (19)..... in the Indian capital, Delhi. There you can either go sightseeing or go shopping, whichever you prefer. But please note that lunch is not provided (20)....., as the plane leaves at two in the afternoon.
