DETERMINERS

GRAMMAR PRACTICE

For each sentence, choose the correct determiner (a, b, c, or d) that best fits the context. Determiners are words that introduce nouns and clarify which specific noun is being referred to.

1. ___ dog barked loudly in ___ yard.
a) the b) some c) a d) this

2. Sarah bought ___ groceries at ___ supermarket.
a) the, the b) some, a c) any, the d) many, an

3. ___ students attended ___ lecture.
a) several, the b) this, a c) few, an d) many, the

4. ___ brother is an excellent musician.
a) My b) Those c) Any d) Each

5. ___ flowers in ___ garden are beautiful.
a) That, the b) Many, a c) These, an d) Those, the

6. ___ few people arrived late to ___ party.
a) Each, the b) Some, a c) A, the d) An, a

7. ___ book is mine, and ___ one is yours.
a) The, that b) Some, this c) Many, these d) Each, those

8. ___ help would be appreciated.
a) Any b) Some c) Each d) Many

9. ___ apple a day keeps ___ doctor away.
a) An, a b) This, the c) Each, a d) Those, an

10. She gave me ___ phone number.
a) Her b) My c) Those d) Any