CAN'T BUY ME LOVE

Activity 1. Can you match these words to their definitions? These are some words or phrases you need in today's lesson.

Straight up	Extremely high in price
Reckon	It spreads everywhere
It makes it all around	To think or believe something
Exorbitant	Directly and honestly

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 2. Answer the Questions! Watch the video and click on T (True) or F (False) to answer the questions below as you watch it. The man in white is the invited speaker.

1. The speaker believes that money is the key to happiness.	T	F
2. The speaker considers themselves generally happy.	T	F
3. The speaker believes that having more money would limit their experiences.	T	F
4. Money can't buy happiness, but it can help.	T	F
5. The speaker believes that money is essential for happiness.	T	F
6. Living in Australia requires money for basic needs like education, clothing, and holidays.	T	F
7. The speaker believes that excessive money is necessary for a good life.	T	F

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 3. Pick the Right Summary!

1. Please select the correct summary and record it by using vocaroo.
2. Upload it to the Google Drive folder shared by the teacher.
3. Listen to your vocabulary in the first recording.
4. Record a second improved version in Vocaroo and send it to a Second Google Drive Folder.

1. In the video, it is highlighted that money is not a significant factor in determining happiness. The speaker suggests that true contentment comes from within and that experiences and relationships hold more value than material wealth. The importance of money is questioned, with the speaker mentioning that some of the happiest people in the world have little to no money.	Right Summary
2. In the video, it is emphasized that money is the key to happiness and essential for a good life. The speaker mentions that even though some people claim money doesn't buy happiness, it is crucial for providing for children and ensuring basic needs are met. The speaker acknowledges that money is the ultimate source of joy and satisfaction in life.	Right Summary
3. In the video, it is discussed that being happy is more important than having money. The speaker believes that money can enhance experiences and make life easier, but ultimately, happiness comes from within. The importance of money varies for different individuals, with some believing it is necessary for basic needs and others valuing experiences over material wealth.	Right Summary

LIVEWORKSHEETS